CAMPIDOGGLIO ONICE

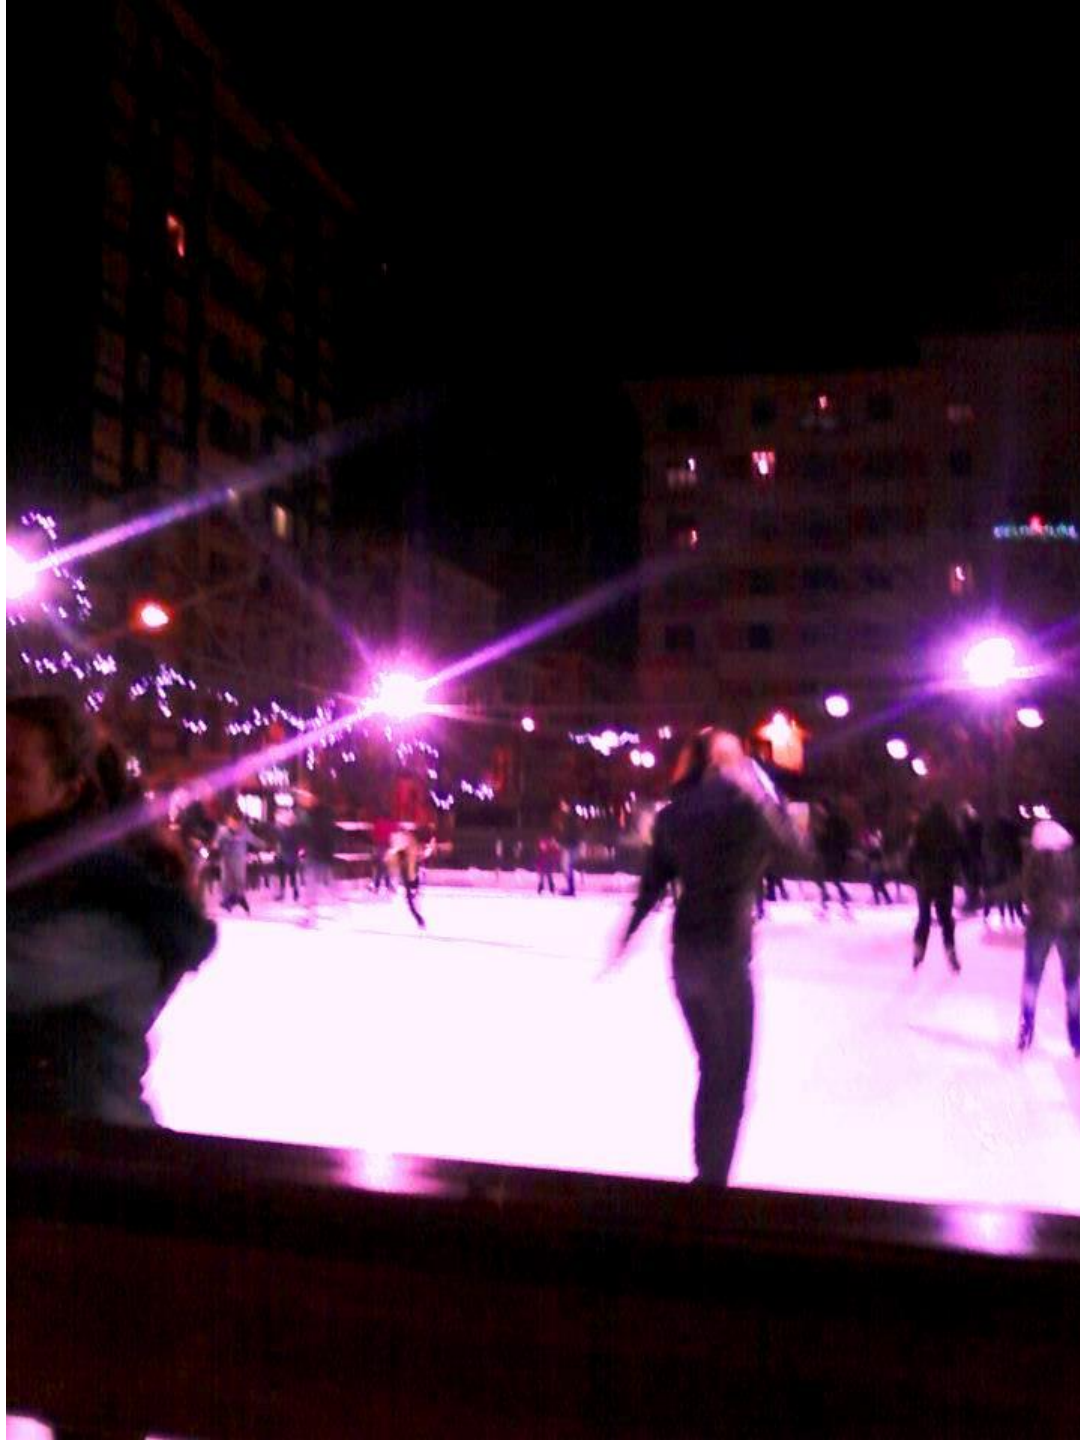

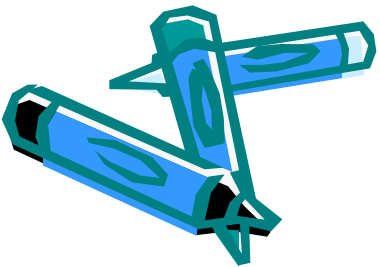

A night photograph of a street in Campidoglio, Rome. A large, illuminated sign in white, block letters reads "CAMPIDOGGLIO ONICE" across the top of the frame. The street is lined with multi-story buildings. In the distance, a large, illuminated figure, possibly a Christmas tree or a decorative structure, is visible. A car is parked in the foreground, and a street lamp illuminates the scene. The overall atmosphere is festive and celebratory.
